APSS Research Website: Quick Test

Thank you for helping. This takes about ten minutes. We are testing the design, not you. Please think out loud as you go.

I am: APSS staff / researcher / student / instructor / other: _____

Part 1: Try these tasks

Start each one from the home page. After each task, circle your answers.

Task	Did you manage it?	How easy was it? (1 = hard, 5 = easy)
1. Find what research APSS is working on right now.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
2. Open one project and find who APSS worked with on it.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
3. Find a journal article.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
4. Find the newest research update.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
5. Go to the main APSS website from here.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
6. You saw a used needle in a park. Find where to report it.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
7. Find out how to work with APSS on a research project.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5
8. On the phone version, open the menu and find Publications.	Yes No	1 2 3 4 5

Part 2: Tell us what you think

Question	Your answer
1. What is this website for, and who is it for?
2. Where did you get stuck or feel lost?
3. Look at the menu. Is any name unclear? What would you call it?
4. Do the colours and photos feel right for APSS? What would you change?
5. Was anything too wordy or too scientific?
6. Did this feel like part of APSS, or like a separate website?
7. If we could change one thing before building it, what should it be?

Overall, how easy was the site to use? 1 2 3 4 5